

A FINE HOTEL.

Broadwater's Big Caravansary Thrown Open to the Public Yesterday.

Thousands Visit the Beautiful Building and Admire it in Detail.

Members of the Council and Board of Trade Formally Dedicate it to the Public.

The Hotel Broadwater was formally thrown open to the public yesterday, but a great deal remains to be done before the evidence of newness will have departed from the beautiful place...

The Capital City band was in attendance and the excellent music while the guests partook of dinner, and afterwards many young couples danced on the piazzas to the exquisite music...

Mayor Fuller was introduced and said: Gentlemen: We are assembled to inaugurate the magnificent resort which Mr. Charles A. Broadwater has added to the attractions of Helena...

The following resolutions were introduced and unanimously adopted: Whereas, We have witnessed the gorgeous spectacle of the illumination of this beautiful hotel by electricity and beheld the triumphs of science and genius in the grand appointments of its modern apartments...

Resolved, That we hereby extend the hearty thanks of all to Col. Charles A. Broadwater for his appropriate conception of a public resort that would be an ornament and honor to any city in the world...

Resolved, That the Hotel Broadwater now opened to the public be hereby recommended to the committee of our citizens as a house where they may live in luxury, health and comfort...

Resolved, That the Hotel Broadwater now opened to the public be hereby recommended to the committee of our citizens as a house where they may live in luxury, health and comfort...

The hotel offices are handsomely furnished. The lobby is spacious and well supplied with easy chairs. From the office you find your way to the bar and billiard rooms, card rooms and closets. The bar is situated in superb style, and the billiard room supplied with the finest tables that can be obtained...

The kitchen, which is in the rear of the main building, is so separated by swinging doors, and so conveniently arranged with flues, etc., that the fumes from cooking can not enter the dining room nor find their way to the sleeping compartments...

Such an immense establishment must needs take an army of employees, over all of whom James Carroll, manager, keeps a watchful eye. The clerks are Benton Hatch and Lee Swords; book-keepers, H. Blatt, Chief Caron; assistants, Chas. and Merrill; pastry cook, C. Klein; assistant cook, Mrs. A. Klein, Fred. Adrien and Andrew Merrick; waiter, Mrs. Cunningham; superintendent in charge of the bath house, Harry Barber...

"The Paymaster."

A well-pleased audience greeted the presentation of "The Paymaster" at the opera house last night. "The Paymaster's" acceptability is due to its dramatic and straightforwardness.

Robert Emmet O'Connor is a young Irish lieutenant in an English regiment stationed at Inslavogue. He is a native of the Emerald Isle, and because they both love Ethel Miley, a native Helensian, the colonel proceeds to get Robert into trouble and disgrace by stealing the latter's funds for the regimental pay, accusing the lieutenant of the theft, and casting him into the barracks' jail.

Robert escapes from his cell by diving from the window into the real Inslavogue river. Ethel sets to work to prove the innocence of her soldier sweetheart. She obtains the broken blade of a pen knife left by the man who entered the paymaster's office and stole his cash. She finds that this article matches a broken knife belonging to the Colonel. The latter tries to make away with Ethel by throwing her into the river. Robert rescues her. Ultimately his innocence is established and the real criminal is unmasked.

Incidentally there is a love interest between Capt. Hammerleigh and Nellie, the paymaster's sister, while the comedy is supplied by Larry O'Brien, a loyal bouchal, his colleen, Moyna Sullivan, and a cockney drill-sergeant.

The two scenes in which the tank is employed are effective. It is a genuine Irish drama, full of wit, pathos and barny, producing laughter and tears. The same play to-night.

Babcock's fall goods are now arriving, the latest and best.

The Helena Street Railway Co. have completed their line to the Montana Central depot and are now running their cars regularly, making connections with all Fair Ground trains.

Disastrous Flood in China, Resulting in the Breaking of the Yellow River Embankment.

A Breach Two Thousand Feet in Length and the Victims Beyond Computation.

A Reservoir Breaks in Rhode Island and Three People Lose Their Lives—Farmers Pauc Stricken

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—The steamer Oceanic arrived to-day from Hong Kong and Yokohama with further details of the bursting of the Yellow river embankments in the province of Shan Tung July 22. The state of destruction is wide-spread. The breach in the river is 2,000 feet in length. A dispatch from Chi Foo states that the number of persons drowned was too great to be counted. It is feared that many more of the districts in the low lying country south will suffer a similar fate.

The latest advices concerning the earthquake at Kumamoto state that fifty-three shocks have been experienced, and continuing to be felt. The inhabitants are sleeping in the open air.

The Reservoir Burst.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 26.—The Spring Lake reservoir at Fiskeville, in the southwest corner of Cranston, about fifteen miles from the city, which supplies the whole row of mill villages along the Pawtucket river, burst yesterday afternoon. Down in the valley Mrs. Greene Tew, aged sixty, Mrs. Hawkins, aged ninety, and Mrs. Tew's son, seven years old, were walking through a strip of woods and were overtaken by the flood and drowned. The bodies were found in the woods through which the water ran until it emptied into the Pawtucket river.

The river rose rapidly and caused considerable alarm among the people who live in the banks. It was thought that the Fongosette reservoir, the largest in the state, had gone. Many of them had left their homes but the flood subsided as rapidly as it had come. The path of the water from the reservoir was through a thinly settled country and the only damaged property was that of a stable and the demolishing of three road bridges. The cause of the bursting of the dam is believed to be that a spring existed under the middle of the dam and the builders did not take sufficient precautions to choke this spring and it undermined the dam. Earl Dodge, aged nine, was with the party who were overtaken and drowned, but he escaped with bruises by clinging to a tree.

HO FOR THE DERBY!

Revolution in Business Principles At THE BEE HIVE.

Having decided to make an entire change in our present manner of doing business, as well as to do business on a different plan from any other house in Montana, we will, from this date on, sell any and all goods in our store at the very small profit of ONLY TEN PER CENT.

Our object in doing this is to increase our business at least tenfold, thereby making our plan feasible and profitable, and at the same time give the purchasing public BETTER GOODS for their money than has ever before been offered in Montana.

We shall carry this plan out to the letter, and our aim is to have the reputation that THE BEE HIVE IS THE CHEAPEST HOUSE IN THE STATE OF MONTANA, and we feel assured that our plan will be successful. This is no buncombe or advertising dodge, but every word in the above tells solid facts, and we will guarantee every word we say. Call and be convinced for yourself.

CLEARING OUT AT Sands Bro's. AND WHAT IT MEANS!

The immense business that we have done this, the dullest month of the year, has surprised even ourselves. When one considers a moment that we are jammed in less than two-thirds of the store room occupied by us last year, and the hammering and building that is constantly going on all around us, the above fact is nothing short of remarkable. The people of Helena have become aroused to the fact that we are

CLEARING OUT, AND SEEM TO FULLY APPRECIATE WHAT IT MEANS—that we are marking down goods to prices so low that you cannot help buying them. It means such bargains as Helena is not likely to see every day in the year. Notwithstanding the fact that

BRICKS AND SCAFFOLDING

Will be the most prominent feature on the outside of our store the coming week, we will show to those who are curious to know what we are doing on the inside an elegant line of

COMBINATION DRESS GOODS.

1889 FALL WEAR 1889

Fall Goods are now arriving daily, especially Dress Goods, Silks, Cloaks and Newmarkets.

Come to our store to-morrow, or some day during the week, and we have no doubt that your time will be well spent.
